

Modern Manners & Mental Fortitude

The life skills course your students actually need.

ALIGNED: UTAH CORE & CASEL STANDARDS

Academic achievement dominates most curricula while students navigate complex social, digital, and emotional landscapes with few tools. Soft skills are assumed, not taught. This course makes them explicit, measurable, and transferable — built for school, family, workplace, and community use.

FOUR CORE PILLARS

01

Respectful Communication

02

Emotional Regulation

03

Decision-Making

04

Accountability & Repair

FIVE COURSE MODULES

MODULE 01

Modern Manners

MODULE 02

Emotional Intelligence

MODULE 03

Conflict Navigation

MODULE 04

Digital Citizenship

MODULE 05

Personal Growth

TWO STUDENT FRAMEWORKS

REGULATION ROUTINE

Pause · Label · Reframe · Respond

Pause

Label

Reframe

Respond

Used before any decision under stress. Introduced in Module 02 and reinforced across all modules. Teaches self-regulation as a performance skill, not a therapy tool.

DECISION FRAMEWORK

Pause · Options · Consequences · Choose

Pause

Options

Consequences

Choose

Structured choice-making under pressure. Introduced in Module 03 and reinforced across all modules. Students apply this to real and simulated high-stakes scenarios.

WHO THIS COURSE SERVES

Grades 7-8

Foundational, one-term introduction to all five modules and both frameworks.

Grades 9-12

Depth increases each year. Students build on prior knowledge through applied scenarios.

Community Youth

After-school programs and faith organizations. Adaptable for non-school settings.

Community Adults

Workplace teams and family development contexts. Skills transfer directly to adult life.

HOW LEARNING IS MEASURED

Weekly Journals

Role-Play Rubrics

Pre & Post Surveys

Capstone Presentation

Novel Scenario Task

WHAT STUDENTS WILL BE ABLE TO DO

- Apply respectful communication across school, workplace, and digital contexts
- Make structured decisions under pressure using the Decision Framework
- Own mistakes, repair relationships, and follow through on commitments

- Self-regulate using the Regulation Routine as a performance skill — not a therapy tool
- Navigate digital life with permanence, privacy, and reputation in mind
- Transfer skills independently to unfamiliar, high-stakes real-world situations

Grounded in research from Tyler, Dewey, Bruner, CASEL (Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning), and Utah State Board of Education Standards.

ENROLL · PARTNER · LICENSE

Register at readyforreal.life

Available as a term course, workshop series, advisory support, or facilitator preparation.

Michael R. Terry
Founder · Educator
Curriculum Designer

Mekenzi G. Terry
Founder · Coach
Director · Community Builder

readyforreal.life

readyforreal.life@gmail.com

(435) 840-1896

© Michael R. Terry & Mekenzi G. Terry